

ASPIRE

For students and graduates making a difference.

ASPIRE Details

The ASPIRE program provides free access to federal and state cases, codes, regulations, law reviews, Shepard's[®] Citation Service and Matthew Bender[®] treatises.

Eligible Students

Rising 2Ls and 3Ls who pursue verifiable 501(c)(3) public interest work are eligible.

- Students may access the program until August 17, 2012

Eligible Graduates

All December 2011 and spring 2012 graduates engaged in verifiable 501(c)(3) public interest work are eligible, including:

- Deferred fall associates
- Graduates searching for employment
- Graduates engaged in verifiable public interest work as a continuing profession

Access continues throughout public interest employment for December 2011 and 2012 graduates until September 1, 2013.

Graduates without an active LexisNexis ID should contact their Account Executive for application assistance.

Additional Information

Students and graduates must work directly for a 501(c)(3) non-profit or charitable organization. Exclusions are:

- Government work (even if unpaid)*
- Work for a law firm (even if it represents a non-profit organization)
- Solo practice (even if it encompasses non-profit work)
- Pro bono work that is neither non-profit nor charitable in nature

We realize your hard work is benefiting others—and we're here to help. Find complete details and apply for the ASPIRE program by logging-on to LexisNexis at:

For more information see your LexisNexis Account Executive.

Government work such as working for a district attorney's office or public defender's office; administrative agencies; or clerking for a judge is excluded because these entities are not 501(c)(3) organizations. A 501(c)(3) organization is defined as one that is organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes. However, you may use Summer Access for educational purposes.*
