WHY SHOULD I USE LEXIS PRACTICE ADVISOR?

It helps provide students with a real and comprehensive view of specific transactional practice areas with related workflows and resources used by practitioners.

- Step-by-step practical guidance will help teach students how to carry out a transaction from beginning to end.
- For class preparation or assignments, access practice tips, drafting notes and checklists written by leading practitioners to help students better understand a specific type of transaction and related issues.
- Students can learn to draft from thousands of model forms and agreements written, vetted and updated by legal experts. Downloadable, editable and authoritative.
- Students can get up to speed quickly, reviewing relevant legal analysis, cases and codes already compiled on the topic or provision.

HOW DO I ACCESS THE LEXIS PRACTICE ADVISOR SERVICE?

- Go to www.lexisadvance.com.
- Enter your Lexis Advance® ID & password.
- Click the arrow by Lexis Advance® Research (top left) and select Lexis Practice Advisor® from the pull-down menu.

QUICKLY ACCESS RELEVANT MATERIALS USING THE TABLE OF CONTENTS

The initial landing page provides a list of the practice areas available. After selecting the area of interest, a variety of tools are presented for easy navigation to a specific type of transaction and insights into industry trends.

1. Expandable Table of Contents

Browse and choose the relevant topic and subtopic. The information displays automatically.

2. Precision Searching

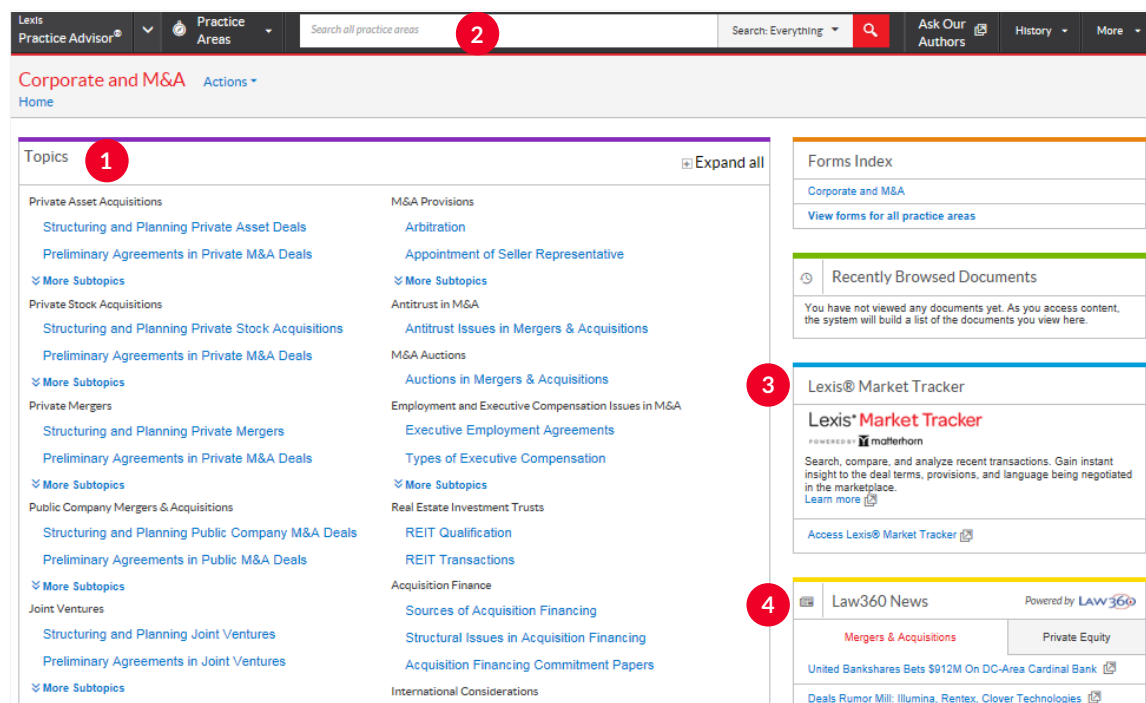

Students get comprehensive results fast with pre- and post-filters that refine their search based on relevant criteria.

3. Lexis® Market Tracker*

Teach students how to extract insights from over 1,500 recent deal and credit transactions. Compare and analyze deal terms, provisions and clauses.

4. Law360® News

Stay current on the latest developments in your area of interest.

* Lexis Market Tracker only available within certain practice area offerings.

EXCLUSIVE PRACTICAL GUIDANCE WRITTEN BY LEADING PRACTITIONERS

The Lexis Practice Advisor service provides practical guidance, forms with annotations, secondary sources, key cases/codes and insightful articles for each practice area currently available.

The screenshot shows the Lexis Practice Advisor interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Lexis Practice Advisor' and 'Practice Areas' dropdown menus, and a search bar labeled 'Search all practice areas'. Below this, the main heading is 'Structuring and Planning Private Asset Deals' with a notification bell icon and an 'Actions' dropdown. The breadcrumb trail reads 'Home / Corporate and M&A / Private Asset Acquisitions'. On the left, a sidebar menu is titled 'Snapshot' and lists five categories: 'Forms', 'Practice Notes', 'Articles', 'Secondary Materials', and 'Cases', with 'Statutes & Legislation' below. Each category is preceded by a red circle containing a white number (1-5). The main content area is also titled 'Snapshot' and features a toolbar with icons for a folder, share, and document. Below the toolbar, there is a list of items, each with a checkbox and a title: '1. Overview – Structuring and Planning Private Asset Deal Development at Persistent Systems Ltd.' and '1. Closing Checklist – Asset Purchase Transaction'. A 'Forms' section is also visible below the list.

1. Forms

Students can access thousands of model forms and agreements with annotations and alternative clauses, as well as primary and ancillary documents.

2. Practice Notes

Students can benefit from practice tips, checklists and valuable insights written by leading practitioners.

3. Articles

Stay on top of trends with access to articles, white papers and other resources.

4. Secondary Materials

Rich legal analysis from leading publishers such as Matthew Bender®.

5. Cases/Codes

Students can save time reviewing “on-point” cases and codes on the selected topic.
