Global Law, News & Business Information at Your Fingertips

Global warming ... advent of the Euro ... human rights ... entry of the People’s Republic of China into the WTO ... formation of “global law firms” ... terrorism ... expansion of the EU ... steel dumping ... extradition ... transnational investment ... globalization ... war ... nation building ... SARS ... trade sanctions ... international tribunals ... genetically modified organisms ... antitrust/competition scrutiny.

Complex issues and events that transcend geopolitical boundaries have profound effects on your life and business. LexisNexis recognizes that the global village and marketplace of the twenty-first century is a reality and that now, more than ever, there is a vital need for access to a broad base of international information. LexisNexis offers unparalleled access to an extensive collection of international legal, news and business information through the LexisNexis® services at www.lexis.com and the new Global Law and Business Research Tasks Page. New, authoritative sources are added constantly. Highlights of some of the most recent additions include:

- Global Law & Business Research Tasks Page! Your jumping-off place for all international trade, law, business and country law research with easy-to-use search templates, daily news, and LexisNexis products such as LexisNexis® CourtLink®, and your favorite Web sites, including the Bureau of Customs & Border Protection, ITC, WTO, IBA and now the International Section of the ABA!

- Ye Olde English Case Law Exclusively on the LexisNexis Services: Looking for those oft-cited but hard-to-find historical English cases—remember: Rylands v. Fletcher (1868) (those wandering cattle trespassing anew) Hadley v. Baxendale (1854) (breach of contract cited in over 1,500 U.S. cases, the latest in November 2004 by the U.S. Supreme Court!)

- International Research Tip:
  Finding Full-Text English Translations of China Laws
  The explosive Chinese economy is due in part to new investment, trade and IP laws in the PRC, with more to come. For example:
  - April 6, 2004: PRCLEG 3464 Foreign Trade Law of the People’s Republic of China

- LexisNexis recognizes that the global effects on your life and business.
  Complex issues and events that transcend competition scrutiny.
  - genetically modified organisms … antitrust/sanctions … international tribunals … nation building … SARS … trade dumping … extradition … transnational terrorism … expansion of the EU … steel formation of “global law firms” …
  - Republic of China into the WTO … human rights … entry of the People’s Republic of China … Global warming … advent of the Euro …

To find these full-text laws on www.lexis.com several sources are noteworthy:

- Chinalawinfo Selected PRC Laws.
  E.g., Search: title (trade law) and promulga-date = 2004

- BBC Worldwide Monitoring—International Reports, China Law & Practice (in ASAPPI database) and Xinhua, the official Chinese news service, cover new PRC laws, sometimes providing the full text in English. E.g., search: headline (chin! AND law AND text) Set your ECLIPSE™ on these publications.
