

High Court Greenlights $2.5B To Fund Trump's Border Wall

In a 5-4 vote, the justices froze a California federal court's June ruling permanently blocking the border wall funding while it is under review at the Ninth Circuit, swayed by the government's argument that its opponents could not seek review of whether its use of the funding complies with Congress's 2019 budget agreement. If the high court decides to take up the case, the stay will remain in place until . . . Read more.
