Expansive Details for Due Diligence, Background and Business Checks, and Much More

What do you need to know? Where the witness lives now? Who owns the business? What was the weather on the date of the accident? Is the doctor licensed? Is doing business with the corporation a major risk?

Find out by using the LexisNexis services. Discover more than 4.6 billion public records covering everything from Secretary of State corporate filings, bankruptcy filings, real estate and personal property ownership records, to voter registrations and other national person-locator resources.

Also, the LexisNexis services offer the prestigious company/financial sources you can stake your reputation on, including Best’s Company Reports. It covers more than 6,000 insurance companies. And, find reports from Dun & Bradstreet®, Standard & Poor’s®, Hoover’s, Disclosure®, and more.

Find medical license information from all 50 states with The Nationwide Directory of Medical Licenses. Historical Weather Reports from the National Climatic Data Center also covers the nation.

Medical and Industry References and News from More Than 14,000 Sources

Not only do you have access to the world’s top newspapers, magazines, wire services, and broadcast transcripts, but you get industry insider news from National Underwriter, Mealeys, NewsRx, and A.M. Best.

Gain access to detailed medical and legal references such as Attorney’s Textbook of Medicine with anatomical transparencies, Mosby’s Medical Drug Reference, Physician’s Desk Reference, FDA 510(k) reports, plus medical and legal dictionaries and encyclopedias.

Find today’s news and uncover yesterday’s standards on everything from business practices to medical procedures. Go back decades in many sources!

Complete Case Preparation … From Analyzing Issues to Reviewing Verdicts

Check your issue in Appleman on Insurance, 2d … courts do. Appleman is the authoritative treatise for insurance issues, cited three times a week by U.S. courts. With 67 volumes and more than a quarter of a million case citations, factual notes, and quotations, it is an indispensable resource.

Matthew Bender® and Mealeys authors offer you insights on all areas of insurance practice and keep you informed on evolving trends and hot litigation topics.

Uncover everything before trial. The extensive LexisNexis collection of public records can point you to hidden assets, lost witnesses, expert witnesses, civil and criminal court histories and thousands of verdicts.

Find out more about judges with the Federal Judges Biographical Database.

Turn to Martindale-Hubbell® Law Directory —another LexisNexis exclusive—to understand the opposition or to recruit expertise.
LexisNexis® CourtLink® puts you in touch with more than 200 million court records. Review case disposition and judicial process.

LexisNexis® Applied Discovery® is the leading provider of electronic discovery services to the country’s top law firms and corporations. Unlike the vendors that evolved from the paper-intensive scanning and coding era, this company was founded on the belief that someday, virtually 100% of all new documents would be created and stored electronically. That day has come.

Detailed Coverage Analysis

Go to the authority! Appleman on Insurance 2d covers all aspects of insurance law, including personal insurance, casualty insurance, state funds, no-fault insurance, commercial insurance bonds, and liquidation.

Miller’s Standard Insurance Policies Annotated®... The only collection of Standard Insurance Policies fully annotated, providing more than 90,000 current annotations to more than 600 policies and endorsements, listed section by section and arranged alphabetically by jurisdiction. The only place you’ll find it online is on the LexisNexis services.

Ensure policy language serves you well! Check International Risk Management Institute (IRMI) manuals. In the absence of legal precedent, IRMI is your best bet. These manuals offer unbiased and authoritative interpretation of policy language with easy-to-understand interpretations and advice on—even practical examples of—Insurance Service Office (ISO) and commercial policies.

Or turn to the industry reference tools from National Underwriters Coverage Guides. We offer the full series.

Check ISO Policy Forms for more than 6,000 standardized property and casualty forms (all ISO forms from inception to current, for all lines of the property and casualty market).

Detailed Compliance Facts

NAIC Model Laws, Regulations and Guidelines not only offer standards but complete, current 50-state compliance histories, including case-law annotations.

Learn of developing insurance issues by searching National Association of Insurance Commissioners Proceedings. You’ll find minutes of the commissioners’ national and zone meetings.

Also find 50-state proposed regulation tracking and historical regulation tracking. And you can search them all simultaneously via either the regular LexisNexis source-selection hierarchy or the LexisNexis Insurance Research Task Page.
Virtually Every Source You Need, Easily Accessible

Whether you select “Insurance” under “Area of Law – By Topic” on the Legal tab...

...or go to the LexisNexis Insurance Research Task Page, you’ll find it easy to take advantage of our comprehensive collection of insurance sources.

NOTE: Sample searches in this guide indicate sources as they appear on the LexisNexis source-selection screens, as opposed to where they appear on the LexisNexis Insurance Research Task Page.
