THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN LEXIS.COM® AND LEXIS ADVANCE®

Lexis Advance® looks different from lexis.com®, but your favorite lexis.com features are still available at Lexis Advance right where you expect them. And now you'll find more browsing functionality and options—in one easy-to-find location—so you can do more in less time, with fewer clicks.

Browse sources: Discover more, easy ways to find needed sources at Lexis Advance

lexis.com

Menu driven, i.e., helps you quickly find the specific sources you want to investigate. You can:

- Browse menu screens and choose the sources you need.
- Search at Quick Tools with Find a Source and search key words or phrases. Link to source descriptions with update schedules, content details, etc. Click to add sources or customized groups of sources to your search. Save favorites for later use.

Lexis Advance

No menu limits. Explore your issue across the universe of information available, including relevant resources you were not familiar with. Don't miss a thing. You can:

- Cover all content with your search, then choose post-search filters to refine to the most relevant documents.
- Quickly find the specific sources you want to investigate. Enter titles in the red search box.
- Also use the Browse Sources hierarchy to refine and create a source list by the criteria you choose, e.g.:
 - content types, e.g., codes or treaties
 - jurisdictions
 - practice areas, etc.

Even refine further, i.e., search with additional words to describe your title. Also link to source descriptions with update schedules, content details, etc.

Add sources or customized groups of sources to your search. Save favorites on the Lexis Advance Home Page for later use.
