

Lexis+™ Resources for Real Property Law

Lexis+ provides students and practitioners exclusive access to leading practice area resources, such as Matthew Bender® treatises and Practice Centers. Click on the links below to tap into the highly regarded and heavily accessed legal and news sources for your practice area needs.

Matthew Bender Treatises

Powell on Real Property® –For more than half a century Powell on Real Property has been the definitive real property treatise that courts look to and cite. Its authoritative, national coverage includes in-depth analysis of pertinent case law, statutes and regulations. Statements of law are supported by abundant citations to statutes, regulations, case law, law review commentary and more. With more than 130 chapters and several practice guides, it covers the gamut of real estate issues with clear explanations of the current law.

Thompson on Real Property –Thompson on Real Property is an important, modern national treatise on real property law. This resource contains up-to-date, comprehensive, in-depth coverage of real property law and has been cited by the courts hundreds of times, including the United States Supreme Court.

Nichols on Eminent Domain® –Nichols on Eminent Domain is the most comprehensive work available on the law, practice and procedures of condemnation and eminent domain. Its 18 volumes address virtually every substantive question of law and procedural question that are likely to arise in a condemnation case.

Purchase and Sale of Real Property –Purchase and Sale of Real Property provides a transactional approach to the purchase and sale of all types of property. This resource provides practice resources, covers variations in law and practice throughout the country, and includes step-by-step procedural guides, checklists, forms and state-by-state law surveys.

Lexis+ Practice Centers

To access all Lexis+ Practice Centers: Under the search box, go to Explore, click Practice Area, then click View our Practice Centers.

Real Property Law Practice Center

Lexis+ Law School Doctrinal Pages

Property Doctrinal Page is a custom page available to you on Lexis+ covering all key resources related to property law.